

I am sick and tired of all the calls I get from people I do not wish to speak with or buy from. This includes the CBA. If I want to talk to a bank, my bank, or any bank, I WILL CALL THEM !!!! I am a big girl and can find any business online or in the phone book that I want to do business with. I do not need to be contacted randomly. In fact, when a business does contact me on the phone that I did not solicit myself, I refuse to do business with them because it makes me think they are desperate for business. Then I do not want to do business with them.
